The Homely and Virtuous Day We Call Thanksgiving

The facetious man might say he is thankful this Thanksgiving Day because he is not a turkey.

The employed man frets because it's always on Thursday, in the middle of a working week, still he is thankful for the holiday.

But to one who thinks twice about it Thanksgiving Day has a homely virtue that makes it staunch and true. Other holidays are tied to tangles which are recognized all over the world — but Thanksgiving Day is something special for the American hearthside alone.

We celebrate the Fourth of July honoring our declaration of independence from Great Britain and our establishment as a sovereign nation. But almost every country has its own equivalent.

Englishmen forced the tyrant King John to grant civil liberties by signing the Magna Charta at Runnymede far back in June 15, 1215. And Frenchmen celebrate Bastille Day June 14 as marking the fall of their own tyrannical kingdom 500 years later.

Our celebration of Christmas is linked by religion to every Christian corner of the earth.

But Thanksgiving Day is one for Americans. You may try to shape it up as merely a festival celebrating the harvest time, if you wish; and practically every country does have a harvest festival of some sort — for instance, the English have what is known as Lammas Day on August 1, originally the festival of the wheat harvest.

But Thanksgiving Day remains a unique and majestic tribute to pioneer Americans alone.

Its modern dating goes back only to 1863, when it was formally put in the national calendar by President Abraham Lincoln — but its origin lay on the rockbound coast of New England more than two centuries before.

Here were a handful of Europeans perched perilously on the rim of a vast and strange new world, hidden by forest, populated by suspicious and sometimes hostile natives, and this handful of westward travelers had come through their year of crisis — The First.

They were thankful because — God and the new country had been good to them and they had food for tomorrow.

And a new home and fireside to protect them against the cold of another winter.

And their numbers had stood up against the ravages of nature in that first crucial year — even gained a little.

This was the beginning — Year One — of the world's greatest republic, and so that original band of just and God-fearing men and women paused to give thanks that the crisis was past and to pray for guidance on the road to tomorrow.

There is always a "now" and "then" in the problems of today. Look back to the Year One, U. S. A., and rediscover in your own hearts how real men and women remembered to be kindly, humble, and just, and so gathered the perception and strength with which to meet tomorrow.

All that those colonists really had to be thankful for was that after a year they were still alive.

It was enough.

It's enough in any man's calendar, in any country, in any year, to say Thanksgiving for.

Death Comes to Missing Python

HUGO, Okla. (UP) — An 18-foot circus python paid with his life for running away from a bath.

The tropical reptile escaped Nov. 15 while its owner, Lee Brailly, was bathing it at his winter quarters near here.

The half-frozen creature was found yesterday by two employees in the camel barn of the Al G. Kelly and Miller Brothers Circus.

Bradley attempted to revive the snake, but it died late in the day.

"There's no doubt the cold weather killed it," Bradley said. He explained that it was common to use hot bricks to keep it warm in winter.

Bradley valued the reptile at $90 to $500.

Jurist Clark to Continue Work, Ignore Firing

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP) — Chief Justice William Clark of the U. S. Court of Appeals in Germany said today he had been fired by the State Department for "FAILING TO TAKE ORDERS." However, the jurist declared he would ignore the dismissal notice and continue to hold court.

Clark, a native of Princeton, N. J., was recently named head of a three-man group assigned by the American Association of Lawyers in Germany to investigate reports that telephones in the headquarters of U. S. High Commissioner James B. Conant were equipped with recording devices.

At a news conference, Clark said he had received a cable Monday from the State Department declaring him "surplus" and advising he would not be reappointed when his regular term ends Jan. 8.

"They ordered me back to the United States for consultations within the next 10 days," he said. "But I am not going to go. This is an attempt to discipline someone who won't take orders. The shocking thing is that judges are not supposed to take orders. I am the chief justice of an independent court."

Clark said that his recent criticism of Conant had probably started the action.

The U. S. High Commission at Bonn issued a statement saying the State Department decided against reappointing Clark due to a decline in court business and for economy reasons.

Guns Are Silent Again as the American People Prepare to Observe Thanksgiving Day

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — America looks forward today to the best Thanksgiving since the twentieth century reached middle age.

The guns at last are silent on this harvest holiday of happiness for the first time since 1949. Jo American is shooting off anything except his mouth, which in our land remains not only the national pastime and a form of exercise — but a God-given right.

There may be flyspecks in the economy, but the great majority of our people have more to be cheerful about than they have had in years.

Peace may be a mirage, but the nightmare of Korea is ended at last.

Paisley Students Hold Turkey Day Program

Miss Caldwell's first grade gave the Thanksgiving program for Paisley school in the auditorium on Tuesday morning. The numbers consisted of songs, readings, acrobatics and talks about the holiday.

Members of the Junior Wisteria Garden Club, under the direction of their leader, Mrs. J. W. Perkins, decorated the Thanksgiving tables in the lunch room. The arrangement of autumn fruits, berries and foliage, high-lighted with pine cone turkeys, made a festive scene.

Mrs. Paul Jones' second grade decorated the hall bulletin board. Children having drawings on the board were: Faye Key, Genevieve Patton, Judy Thorton, Mary Frances Turner, Judy Dugan, Linda Calhoun, Brenda Parris, Roseanne Williams, Carol Lee Keith, Judy Ann Bennett, Verna Gail Harmon, Jerry Honeycutt, and Frances Sparks.

Bureau Is Against Cattle Parity

By LEON HATCH

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Farm Bureau Federation yesterday afternoon took a stand against government price support of beef and other livestock products after having earlier repeated its approval of price supports for "stable and storable commodities."

On the political side, the official delegate adopted a resolution opposing Gov. Francis Cherry's proposed 100 per cent tax assessment amendment.

Then the federation went through the formality of re-electing officers, held a banquet last night and closed out its 10th annual convention.

Although stopping short of favoring a price support program for livestock, the federation called on the government to help bolster the cattle market.

A resolution asked that when the market price falls below 50 per cent of parity, the government put importing any livestock products for consumption by the armed forces or other agencies.

In farm program phraseology, parity is the average of prices received by producers for commodities over a specified previous period. It is the basis on which price controls are fixed.

Sponsors of the resolution said that government purchasing from domestic sources only would reduce foreign competition and tend to keep up prices to domestic producers.

The resolution, as originally presented was amended on motion of delegate Sam Hedges of Mayview to make it clear that the federation opposed direct price support for livestock. A second proposed amendment to delete everything in the resolution except the one sentence which Hedges had added was defeated.

The federation made a distinction between support of prices on "stable and storable" commodities and support of prices on livestock, which didn't think could be included in the "stable and storable" classification.

In a resolution which was adopted without discussion, the federation asked that provisions be made for an increase as needed in the present 17,910,448 acre cotton crop allotment for 1954 to take care of "hardship cases" resulting from a scheduled reduction from this year's acreage of more than 24,500,000.

Most highways were reopened in California and telephone service was restored to Crescent City and Klamath. Only highway 299 was closed, because of landslides between Eureka and Redding.

Southern Oregon was not so well off but officials said the situation was improving. Several thousand persons in the Coquille River area remained more or less isolated because of high water covering highways.

Labor Survey to Be Taken in Hempstead

Soon residents of Hempstead county will be receiving a questionnaire form in regards to their work and occupation.

The questionnaire is one of the forms being used by the Hempstead County Chamber of Commerce and the Arkansas State Employment Service in a joint survey of potential labor supply in Hempstead County.

The cooperating agencies are making every effort to get into the hands of every worker and potential worker one of these questionnaire forms. The form may be mailed in the enclosed, postage-free, addressed envelope or it may be returned directly to the local State Employment Service office.

It is the desire of these agencies to complete this labor survey by January 1, 1954. The need of this information has been felt for quite a while because many queries come in to the Hope Chamber of Commerce and the local Employment Office in regards to various types of labor and potential labor. It is felt that this is quite a worthwhile project and deserves the wholehearted cooperation of every citizen in Hempstead county.

Services May Cut Manpower by 10 Per Cent

WASHINGTON (UP) — Assistant Defense Secretary John A. Hannah said today the Army, Navy and Marine corps are studying the possibility of cutting manpower strength 10 per cent in the next fiscal year.

A decision is expected early next month, when the defense budget for the fiscal year starting next July is due to be completed. A 10 per cent cut in manpower may save $1,000,000,000, it has been estimated.

Hannah emphasized at a news conference that if a 10 per cent cut were made it would be in "support" troops and not impair the "combat effectiveness" of the Army, Navy and Marine Corps.

Hannah said that it has been agreed that the Air Force will keep its present authorized strength of 970,000 men while building up to 127 wings.

Crowded Condition Curbs Admittance to State Hospital

Dr. J. Reden Baker, acting superintendent of the Arkansas State Hospital, has notified local court officials that due to the extremely overcrowded condition on the children's wards in the State Hospital and on the wards caring for elderly persons, the hospital will be unable to admit any more patients the age of fifteen, or over the age of sixty-five, until a bed is available.

Dr. Reden stated that the population of the State Hospital is now at an all-time high and that it was necessary for the medical staff to screen all admissions to the hospital very carefully. "The cooperation of all officials connected with the committee of patients is being requested."

Local probate court officials said today that in order to avoid patients being sent to the hospital who cannot be admitted because of lack of bed space, they have been contact the State Hospital by letter, or in cases of emergency by telephone, as to whether a bed is available prior to the presentation of commitment papers to the court.

McCarthy Offers Himself as Campaign Issue

By ROBERT ZIMMERMAN

NEW YORK (UP) — Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy offered himself today as an issue in the 1954 congressional elections.

The Wisconsin senator, on a nationwide radio and television broadcast, defended his role as the founder of "McCarthyism" and invited voters to pass judgment on his Communist-hunting tactics at the polls next year.

McCarthy made a half-hour speech last night over major radio and TV networks after demanding equal time to answer an attack by former President Harry S. Truman on "McCarthyism."

The senator said that if the American people agree with Mr. Truman that "McCarthyism is bad," they can "get rid of me as chairman of the investigating committee next fall by defeating my Republicanism up for election."

He denounced Mr. Truman as an exponent of "Trumanism," which he defined as "the placing of your political party above the interest of the country, regardless of how much the country is damaged thereby."

He also criticized the Eisenhower administration for not getting rid of all alleged communists in the government for not cutting off foreign aid to nations which conduct business with Communist China.

Mr. Truman, at his home in Independence, Mo., refused to comment on the McCarthy speech and gave no indication whether he even had listened to it.

President Eisenhower went to bed early last night at Augusta, Ga., and did not hear the speech.

Few members of Congress, Democrat or Republican, would comment on the McCarthy speech.

Democratic National Chairman Stephen A. Mitchell had only the remark: "Look who's talking."

Rep. Herman P. Eberharter (D-Pa.) said McCarthy (reminds me of a bubble that has so much wind in it it's going to bust. He's a blowhard."

McCarthy sat before microphones and TV cameras in a small CBS television studio in New York to condemn Mr. Truman's conduct in the Harry Dexter White case and charge that the Truman administration

Dr. Culver is an outstanding minister in the Little Rock Conference and takes a leading part in all of the church programs.

Canada to Let U. S. Question Ex-Russian

OTTAWA (AP) — Canada appeared ready today to announce formally that U. S. Senate investigators can question ex-Russian Igor Gouzenko any time they want — but that the questioning may finger him for the Communists he exposed in 1945.

Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent, in a statement to Parliament this afternoon, was scheduled to outline his government's reply to a second request from a U. S. Senate internal security subcommittee for an opportunity to question Gouzenko, former Soviet Embassy clerk who revealed a Russian spy ring operating in Canada.

St. Laurent was slated to speak at about 2:30 p. m. EST.

Unofficial sources speculated that arrangements might be made for a secret meeting between Gouzenko and a subcommittee representative somewhere in Canada. It apparently would be up to Gouzenko whether he wanted to run the risk of exposure by attending.

Canadian Foreign Secretary Lester B. Pearson outlined his government's position in a statement.

U. S. Pro-Reds Want Thanksgiving Too

By JAMES MORRISSEY
PANMUNJOM, Korea, (UP) — The 22 Communist-held American war prisoners who have refused to go home told their Indian guards today they wish to observe Thanksgiving day just like all other Americans.

An Indian spokesman said the prisoners' request had been relayed to the Communists, who agreed to provide "special food" and beer for the holiday.

The Communists did not say what the special food would be. The prisoners' usual diet has been rice, vegetables and pork.

The last-minute request raised the hopes of U. S. explainers, who had been informed that the American prisoners sent their time singing the Internationale and parading with Chinese and North Korean flags.

Cost of Living Up, CIO to Get Wage Hike

By NORMAN WALKER

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government reported today that living costs edged up a bit in the month ending in mid-October — surging a million CIO auto workers of a two-cents-an-hour wage increase.

The increase, of two-tenths of one cent, during the month, brought the index of the Bureau of Labor statistics to another record high for the fifth month in a row. It stood at 115.4 per cent in the 1947-49 average, or 1.1 per cent above a year ago.

Despite the new living cost increase, Communist leader Ewart Clague of the bureau said the nation's inflationary period appeared to be at an end. He said that lower food prices were likely in the coming winter months and "may bring the overall living cost levels down from their present peak."

"I think the index will unacceptably narrow limits," Clague told a news conference. "But the period of inflation appears to be ended."

During the month foods declined slightly but this was more than offset by increases in the cost of housing, clothing, medical care, personal care, recreation and other goods and services.

The mid-October figure was 13.4 per cent above the level of June, 1950 when the Korean War started.

Charges to Be Filed in Dierks Case

ASHDUD, M. — Prosecutor R. Coker Thomas said today that he expects to file state charges "within a few days" against two former officials of the Bank of Dierks in a $175,000 shoplifting case.

Thomas' announcement followed adoption of a resolution by the Arkansas Bankers Association yesterday calling on the federal government to bring to trial those responsible for the shortage.

The prosecutor said he had received a synopsis of evidence covering only state charges from the Department of Justice and added that he has not yet received permission to use "Vance Surlock's testimony."

Surlock, now state revenue commissioner, was the FBI agent who handled the case.

Thomas said that he and his assistant, Don Steel, will begin an investigation Monday on state charges. He declined to state what the charges would be.

Two former officials of the bank, Mrs. Opal Stimmington and Thomas Westbrook, were indicted earlier this year by a federal grand jury on 11 counts ranging from embezzlement to making false entries in the books.

All but one of the federal charges has been dropped, and U. S. District Attorney Charles Atkinson last month turned over the case to state authorities.

May Decorate Prisoners

By ELTON C. FAY

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Air Force is considering decorating or giving some other recognition to former war prisoners who resisted torture and refused to make false confessions for Communist propaganda.

A spokesman said today that official recommendation of such action must await completion of a detailed study of each individual case.

Such recognition presumably would go to five airmen who refused to succumb to pressure by the enemy — Lt. John Street, South Gange, N. C. M. Sgt. George Moore of Rockville, Md. Capt. William Preston of Batavia, N. Y.; Capt. Zach Dean of Douglas, Kan.; and Capt. William McTaggart of East Brady, Pa.

is "Smog Gets in Your Eyes."

But it isn't his fault. Every once in a while the climate just gets out of his control. Let's hope the weather fellow gets a piece of turkey tomorrow, too — even if it is only the neck. He's been sticking his own neck out all year.

Who doesn't have something to feel grateful for?

The nation's health keeps on getting better. We took a long step forward in the conquest of polio.

Somebody built a doughnut with a smaller hole, and another fellow found a way to put a lime flavor in popcorn.

Rita Hayworth got a new husband. The movie industry came up with a new screen wide enough to give a full view of Marilyn Monroe. Television discovered and began to feature a bright new playwright — William Shakespeare — and put on "King Lear" without having old Lear do a ber or razor blade commercial.

The Republican party could feel grateful all its defeats were local in nature, as there was no national election, one of the really nicest things about 1953. The Democrats were equally grateful that Harry Dexter White hadn't been born twins.

The sports world had its moments of bliss to look back on, too. The St. Louis Browns after all these years, got a chance for a new start in life under a new name. Notre Dame's football team managed to make a few lucky first downs. After Coach Frank Leahy had expressed doubt they could pull off at the start of the season.

The laboring man and the tired businessman were cheered by a Philadelphia heart specialist's statement that a woman today is now strong enough to raise kids, take care of the house, hold down an outside job and also protect her poor weak husband. The average man saw a more hopeful future also in the fact more stores began featuring the two-pants suit again.

Mortgage money became more plentiful, so that a fellow again could start borrowing to buy the things he couldn't afford.

Yes, peace and general plenty beside America which, a survey shows, pulls down 40 per cent of the total income in a hungry world.

Let us, when the steaming turkey is put on the table tomorrow, bend our heads in thanks for what we have, and not forget to mention in our prayers, as the old Irish mothers say, "the ones that are ill, and the ones away."

It is a Thanksgiving to remember, now in our pilgrimage.

"Tonight I shall spend but very little time on Harry Truman," he said. "As an individual, he is of no more importance than any other individual who has been repudiated by an overwhelming vote of the American people. Trumanism, however, becomes an issue in so far as it is embraced by the Democratic party."

"Trumanism can perhaps best be defined as the placing of your political party above the interest of the country, regardless of how much the country is damaged thereby. It is the theory that no matter how great the wrong, it is right if it helps your political party."

He charged that Mr. Truman intervened in behalf of a Communist employee in the government in 1944, a year before the espionage charges against White were forwarded to the White House by the FBI. At the time, Mr. Truman was a U.S. senator.

McCarthy said Mr. Truman wrote a three-page letter "denouncing" the civil service commission for recommending the dismissal of George Shaw Wheeler as a security risk. Wheeler, according to McCarthy, later "disappeared behind the Iron Curtain."

Negro Woman Sought in Fatality

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — An intensive search is underway here for a Negro woman who left the side of a 14-year-old fatally injured bicyclist here last Thursday.

Dr. Anderson Nettleship, state medical examiner, said yesterday that Ronald Lee Senllion was killed by a blunt instrument.

He died of a blow on the back of the head, but Nettleship would not say if he believed the death weapon was wielded or if the boy had struck his head against the object.

Deputy Coroner L. Gordon Holt has said here is a possibility of murder in the boy's death and the investigation was turned over to Chief of Detectives C. O. Fink yesterday.

Fink ordered an all-out search for the Negro woman, described as about 30 to 35 years old, some 5-feet-5 tall, weighing about 130 pounds and wearing a dark brown or rust colored coat.

A motorist, Leland A. Horton of Little Rock, told police the woman — blood streaming down her face — was standing near the injured boy and his bicycle on a residential street when he stopped to investigate.

He quoted her as saying "he hit us both." When Horton left the scene to notify police, she disappeared.

Police have dropped an original theory that the bicyclist was struck by an automobile.

Most of the world's inhabitants live below the 600-foot level.

CHAPTER FIFTEEN

THIS BUS, caught in the rush-hour traffic, crawled and crept, yet ever closer to the office. Suddenly Charlotte pulled the cord and plunged off at the next corner. She started walking away from the office, just anywhere, away. After all, she wasn't ready, not quite...

She realized she was heading toward the midtown restaurant where her mother checked wraps. Charlotte had never been there, but her steps moved certainly. In fact, she hadn't even seen her mother since the night they visited King together. Why? It couldn't possibly be shame that kept Charlotte away, could it? Or an attempt to blot out the memory of her mother's suffering face and the place she lived? After the operation Charlotte had called the hospital twice to assure herself all was well. And since then her mother had telephoned from time to time. Charlotte knew that Mrs. Morgan somehow sensed her affair with King.

She went into the restaurant now and nodded to her mother, who was busy, saw the look of wonder on her face. Charlotte sat down at the back and ordered a pot of coffee, watching. That's my mother, she said to herself experimentally. I exist because of her. I am her flesh and blood.

At this distance she looked very young. She stood slim and straight in one of Charlotte's dresses. It was like watching herself in a mirror. It was like watching a stranger.

Charlotte continued to stare at the thin face. Off guard it broadened, and the staring, light eyes might have been blind. That the pointed chin had a certain set. Her mother was tired. Charlotte could tell from the way she sat down whenever she wasn't busy. But she called, radiating charm when a customer came, and she handled the men's lively overcoats ably, as though there were no unsuspected strength in the slight body.

My mother's a lady, Charlotte said to herself.

My mother who once made everything right, every wound, every woe. And who then made everything wrong. All these consequences, so long after her misdeeds.

But she couldn't help it. It was the man. Or nature. The things beyond us. "The moving finger writes...nor all our piety nor wit can cancel out a line of it."

She'd give her arm to mother now, but it's too late. I learned to walk alone, to care for myself. It's the only way. I know. She found me, but I am lost to her. I have no need of her. For me she doesn't exist.

Why then this feeling? Why am I here with my troubles? Why am I concerned that she looks so ill? Why this stab of emotion when I think maybe she's going to die?

Yerger Plays Texas Team Here Thursday

Coach Yerger has been carrying the Texas team standard since made an order to keep them in shape for their final game of the season at 11:00 a.m. at the Texas A&M Stadium. This is the third time these two teams have met on Thanksgiving Day and the record now stands at one win each.

Pratt is a game team, having been playing football for only about three years. Judging from the fine game they played last year against the Texas team, which they won 36-6, the team this year promises to be a hard fought one.

Porkers, SMU, Texas, Rice Are Favored

By HAROLD CLAASSEN

NEW YORK 25 — This is the week of tradition in college football. Except for the Notre Dame southern California game, neighbor will be slugging neighbor. And the Irish-Texas rivalry is so established the two can argue as neighbors anyway.

Last week's forecasting efforts ran the season's figures to 336 correct picks and 99 misses. That broke the average to 753.

Here are the final picks of the year:

Thursday

Penn over Cornell: This is George Mauer's farewell as coach of the Penn State team. He will leave them smiling.

Texas over Texas A&M: The Longhorns' talent on the field will overcome any advantage the Aggies may derive by playing at home.

Utah over Brigham Young: The game you will see on your TV screen. The Utes already have clinched the Skyline Conference title.

Other Thursday games: South Carolina over Brown, South Carolina over Wake Forest, Detroit over Wichita, College of Pacific over Utah State, Virginia Tech over Virginia Military, Wyoming over Denver.

Saturday

Army over Navy: Army has the more cohesive unit. Fred Attagay, the Cadet back and Army's best player, will not be able to play.

Stevie Eisenbauer, Navy's great linebacker, has been shifted to his old position. Yet the cards all say Army. You can see for yourself on the TV screen.

Notre Dame over Southern California: The Irish forces, unveiled, their talents on the edge of Hollywood, they will win their gridiron.

Oscar Johnny Lattner to have a busy afternoon.

Georgia Tech over Georgia: The Georgia line has been dubbed "the sieve," that should make it easy for the Tech backs in their Sugar Bowl romp.

Holy Cross over Boston College: The Crusaders are back on the right track after a midseason slump.

Rice over Baylor: What a block and tackle party this will be. Rice to win and share the Southwest Conference title with Texas.

Duke over North Carolina: Duke to win.

Baseball All-Time Great Now 87

ROSEN 87 — Baseball's greatest all-time batter, the 438-batting home run slugger, observes Thanksgiving along with his 87th birthday.

Still in harness as director of the Boston Red Sox summer baseball school, the spy of legendarian finally has become convinced that the batting mark he set for the Boston National back in 1934 is a permanent item in the game's record book.

Some years ago, Duffy had high hopes that his current batting idol, Boston's Ted Williams, would break his record. But now Hughes will be satisfied if Williams, who batted .406 in 1941, becomes the fourth modern player to enter the highly exclusive 400-circle for the second time.

Coach Martin's luckless Bobcats have an unimpressive record with four wins, four losses and three ties while Bob Allen's Razorbacks are considered one of the top teams in Arkansas.

Comparative scores rate the Razorbacks as overwhelming favorites to run up about any score they want. Hope will be out-weighted, out-manned in every department.

However, the Bobcats can be stubborn at times and could be in the frame of mind to make a game of it although the odds are heavy against them. Nevertheless Coach Martin has worked his boys hard all week and they are in good condition with the exception of Sonny Griffin who may see only limited action.

While it would be just another victory for Texarkana a win for Hope would give the Bobcats limited prestige, something which they haven't had this season.

The band, students and fans will accompany the team.

Pittsburgh — Bob Baker, 223, Pittsburgh, outpointed Charles "Doc" Williams, 193, Jackson, Va., 10.

San Antonio, Tex. — Chief Alvin Williams, 173, Oklahoma City, outpointed Joe Moran, 172, San Antonio, 12.

was named to succeed Charlie Dreeser yesterday after Pee Wee Reese, shortstop and captain of the Dodgers, had declined the role of a playing manager.

The 42-year-old resident of Oxford, Ohio, who has been serving as manager in the Dodger farm system for 8 1/2 years, saw the briefest of service in the major leagues. He appeared in only one game and was at bat only once. That was in 1936 as a member of the St. Louis Cardinals.

"I got up only one time," he recalled with a smile. "Lon Warneke was pitching. I fouled off a couple then struck out. We had Johnny Mize, Rip Collins and Dick Siebert so I just had 'a cup of coffee.'"

Par West: Colorado over Colorado A&M, Arizona over Temple State.

Notre Dame over Southern Methodist, Houston over Tennessee.

ARKANSAS Sportettes

by CARL BELL

Associated Press Sports Writer

Tain't true. You CAN teach an old dog new tricks.

It took this football forecaster all season to learn, but after making the mistake of picking Arkansas A&M to lose most of the time he's going to ride with the Boll Weevils Thursday night. They'll defeat Southern State and win an undisputed Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference championship.

This is one of those red-hot traditional rivalries in which the pregame dope means nothing. However, with the title as incentive and the benefit of an open date last week to help them get ready, the Weevils shouldn't be vulnerable to an upset.

On to the other games. Here are the season-ending shots with which we hope to improve a record of 72 per cent accuracy on 240 correct predictions, 82 misses and 16 ties:

Arkansas over Tulsa — The Razorbacks finally get an opponent they're expected to beat. Lamar McLean, Floyd Sagely and their fellow seniors will want to make their parting shot a good one.

Rice over Baylor — his would put the Owls in the Cotton Bowl. It's a battle between the two finest backfields in the Southwest Conference. Rice's line is the difference.

Texas over Texas A&M — Looks cut and dried, but this turkey day series is famous for its upsets. SMU over TCU — That Mustang defense is murder. It's any split T offense, and CU's attack is not one of the best in that category.

Arkansas State Teachers over Henderson — Following form in a good spot for an upset.

Sonoma JC over Little Rock JC — Guessing.

Little Rock over North Little Rock — The Tigers have had their ups and downs this year, but they have what it takes to get this one and the Big Seven championship that goes with it.

Wednesday night — Conway over Atkins, Malvern over Fairview, Russellville over Clarksville, Fordyce over Warren, West Memphis over Hughes, Booneville over Paris, Bearden over Rison, Dierks over Mineral Springs.

Thursday — El Dorado over Camden, Fort Smith over Subino, Pine Bluff over Hot Springs, Texarkana over Hope.

Fridayville over Catholic High, Wynne over Forrest City, Jonesboro over Paragould, Newport over Batesville, Magnolia over Nashville, Harrison over Mountain Home, Searcy over Beebe, Walnut Ridge over Pothontas, Piggott over Corns, Marked rec over Osceola, Parkin over Earle.

Overnight over Mena, Morrilton over Ozark, Hartford over Waldron, Stuttgart over Brinkley, De Witt over Gillett, Helena over

Cadets Have Best Team Since Ouster

WEST POINT, N. V. (AP) — Army, a makeshift team in September, goes into the Navy game Saturday, rated even with the Middles and possessing the best record in major eastern college football.

The West Point success story is one of recovery from the loss of its "regulars" just before the No. 18 in the national ratings. The Cadets enter the 34th meeting of the service academies with a 6-1-1 record compared to Navy's 4-2-2.

The road hasn't been an easy one. But Coach Earl (Red) Blaik and a fighting squad have done an outstanding job in bringing Army to the threshold of the "big one."

A combination of injuries and resignations snatched starting tackles Neil Chamberlain and Ron Lincoln and backs Dick Itehl, Fred Meyers and Mario Delucia from the team. Gerry Lodge, listed as a guard, had to be moved to fullback when regular Fred Attaya suffered a pre-season knee injury.

Due to a recurrence of that injury Attaya remains a doubtful performer for the traditional battle to be played before a capacity crowd of 102,000 in Philadelphia's Municipal Stadium and a nationwide television audience.

Army looks good by comparison. Marianna, Clarendon over Holly Grove, Crosslet over Hamburg, Eudora over Lake Village.

Funeral service for Cliff Muldrow will be held Thursday, No-five scores. The Cadets edged Duke 14-13 while Navy had to be content with a scoreless draw with the Blue Devils. Both met Columbia but while Army ran wild 40-7 Navy was held to a 14-0 victory.

Against Penn the Cadets won 21-14 while the middies dropped a 9-6 decision. Navy did hand Dartmouth the worse licking, 55-7 as again a 27-0.

The West Pointers will be trying for their first victory since they won 29-0 in 1949. Erdelatz is looking for his fourth straight over the soldiers — something no other Middle coach has accomplished.

ember 26, at St. Mark CME Church at 11 a. m. with Hicks Funeral Home in charge.

Mrs. Nancy Smith died in Nashville, Tuesday November 24. Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

The Melody Five of Magnolia will give a musical program at Rising Star Baptist Church Sunday night, November 29. Sponsored by the Missionary society. The public is invited.

The West Arkansas AME Annual conference will convene in Malvern Arkansas Wednesday, November 25-29. W. R. Wilkes is presiding Bishop.

Philadelphia Slaps Curfew on Youths

Philadelphia (UP) — Authorities today slapped an 11 p.m. curfew on teenagers as a result of weekend raids which rounded up nearly 1,000 juvenile toughs.

The police department ordered a few girls under 18 throughout the city. In the Center City area, both boys and girls fell under the order.

Senior policewoman Norman Capron said the city is "faced with the problem of more serious offenses committed by girls than ever before."

"We have received complaints of girls burglarizing homes and businesses, and helping gangs of boys steal automobiles. We have cases of girls stealing autos," she said.

Mrs. Caron ordered the 24 policewomen under her command to question all girls found on the streets at an "unreasonable" hour. "I must have a greater force to throw into the campaign against the increase of juvenile delinquency among girls," she said, adding they are even committing such offenses as arson and gang fights for "supremacy of the neighborhood."

The policewoman said her organization which works with the board of education, resorts to arrest only when a talk with the girl and her parents produces no positive results.

Stout Defense Is GOP Aim, Says Treasurer

CHICAGO (AP) — Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey says the Republican administration is working toward a national security based on "a sturdy defense supported by a sound economy."

At a 100-a-plate Republican dinner last night, Humphrey shared the podium with another Cabinet member, Mrs. Oveta Culp Hobby, secretary of health, education and welfare.

"Our concern for our economy is nothing less than our concern for the first line of defense for every freedom that we cherish," Humphrey said.

Mrs. Hobby told the 1,650 persons attending the dinner in the Palmer House that "peace in Korea" ranks first among accomplishments of the Eisenhower administration.

Humphrey said the Republicans' economic policies are "speeding the day" of tax reductions. But he said these reductions can come only as spending drops.

He said the present administration is dealing with "crippling burdens inherited from the previous administration" in "the fiscal and economic field."

Two of these, he said, were that the public debt "practically at the limit of 275 billion dollars" had been "badly managed by the Democrats and that no money had been provided to pay for 31 billion dollars in defense orders to be delivered this year and during the next two years."

Nearly three fourths of the public debt, Humphrey said, "Matures within less than five years or is redeemable at a proportion in the hands of banks rather than distributed to long term investors."

"Both of these conditions were deliberately planned by our predecessors and affect the supply of credit."

The population of Canada is about 15 million.
